A RIVER HORROR!

A Steamer Sinks in the Mississippi River and Five Persons are Drowned.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, April 19.—The steamer Everett, belonging to the Burlington lumber company, was sunk at the head of Otter Island last night, and five of the sixteen persons on board were drowned. The names of the dead are Captain Vincent Peel, Mrs. Harry Bell (clerk) and her three-year-old daughter, George Howard (first cook), and a nurse girl, name unknown. The Everett was on her way from this city to New Boston Bay, when, about 7 o'clock last evening, she was struck by a terrific gale and sunk in twenty feet of water.

Ten persons were on the lower deck or in other open parts of the boat and were flung into the water as the craft sunk. They all managed to escape by swimming to the over-turned craft and clinging to the small portion of it which remained above water.

Capt. Vincent Peel, Mrs. Harry Bell and her three-year-old daughter, George Howard and wife, respectively first and second cook, and a nurse girl, name unknown, were in the cabin. This was submerged and filled with water, all but one small corner.

Mrs. Howard found this and remained in it, calling for help, until the roof was broken in, and she was rescued almost dead. All the others were drowned. Captain Peel leaves a wife and several children, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard a little child. The body of Mrs. Bell has been recovered, but the others are supposed to be still in the cabin. The survivors called for help until their cries were heard, and they were rescued from the wreck in a skiff. They were taken to the Illinois shore, where they made a fire. The only man in the company who could swim escaped without a wetting, by climbing up the staunchions, and he, fortunately, had matches in his pocket. The boat is valued at $6,000, but will be raised with a small loss.

IT'S A GO!

The New School Book Law to be Hurried Into Operation.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 19.—The state board of education has concluded consideration of the new school book law and the determination is to have it in operation for the fall school term, or as soon thereafter as possible.

The advertisement setting forth the provisions to be considered in making bids will appear in all the papers, in accordance with the law, on Tuesday, April 23, and May 28 the sealed proposals will be opened.

It was decided by the adoption of a resolution that the number of text books shall be construed literally as follows: One spelling book, five reading books, two arithmetics, two geographies, two English grammars, one physiology, one history United States, six copy-books.

A BIG ONE.

A New Gas Well Near Muncie With an Outflow of 12,000,000 Feet Per Day.

MUNCIE, April 19.—The largest gas well ever drilled in Delaware county was developed yesterday, on the land of the Delaware county land and improvement company west of the city about one mile. The capacity is estimated at 12,000,000 cubic feet per day, and the flow of gas is so strong that the drillers have found it next to impossible to pack it. Heavy weights pitched into the mouth of the six-inch orifice are thrown up through the derrick, a distance of one hundred feet, with the velocity of a huge ball shot out of a cannon.

Pardoned and Paroled.

INDIANAPALIS, Ind., April 19.—Robert S. Miller, of Peru, sentenced to the northern penitentiary for manslaughter for two years was pardoned yesterday by Governor Hovey. Miller was deputy marshal of Peru, and killed a man who unduly provoked him. The governor also paroled Sam Williams, of Boonville, sentenced from Warrick county for manslaughter. He has served seven years of the ten for which he was sentenced. He had two trials, and the judges, prosecutor and juries in both cases joined in asking the executive clemency. A violation of his pledge to abstain from liquor and to keep the peace is conditional in the parole.

Will Not Pay the Fees.

ANGOLA, Ind., April 19.—As a sequel to the travesty upon justice in the Crandall liquor license case in the Whitley circuit court, that county has sent a bill to this county for $168 fees for the jury, which Judge Adair decided had nothing to do in the decision of the case. Auditor Wood will not issue an order for the payment of the bill until compelled to do so by mandamus, and tax-payers [illegible]

GOT INTO THE WRONG HOUSE.

A Couple of Illicit Lovers Unceremoniously Bounced by a Landlord.

A pretty lively scene happened in one of the hotels of this city yesterday afternoon. Two young ladies arrived at the place, and, professing to be weary with travel, were given a room where they could rest for a few hours. Shortly afterwards a young man, who said he was a brother of the ladies, stepped into the office, inquired for them, and asked to be shown to their room. The clerk on duty was somewhat "green at the business," and he complied with his request.

The fellow had not been in the room very long when the proprietor arrived at the office. The clerk told him what he had done and in three minutes he was at the locked door of his guests' room pounding for admittance. The fellow was slow in obeying his demands and when the landlord entered he found his suspicions of illicit lovers verified. There was a high time in that house for a while. The landlord was so angered at the movements of the trio and at the thought of their making his house such a resort, that he started to call the police to have the three arrested, but the young fellow pleaded so piteously that he finally relented, and after giving them "his opinion," couched in pretty strong language, allowed them to depart. The guilty lovers had got into the wrong house.

A HANDSOME GIFT.

Hon. J. B. White Presents the Portrait of Washington to the City.

Hon. J. B. White is always doing the handsome thing, and to-day his generosity and patriotism were jointly manifested to a degree that must find the warmest appreciation in the hearts of his fellow citizens.

The letter received by Hon. C. F. Muhler this morning explains itself:

Hon. C. F. Muhler, Mayor of the City of Fort Wayne:

DEAR SIR—The portrait of George Washington, which has just been completed by the talented artist, Ambrose McNeil, and which is now on exhibition at the bookstore of Messrs. Renner, Cratsley & Co., in this city, and which is pronounced by all who have seen it, as a most true and admirable likeness of the great patriot, and in keeping with things in Washington City, where in the great council chamber or house of representatives, there hangs the likeness of the immortal hero, the father of his country, so that all who visit that place may look upon and behold it, and which is a continual reminder to the present and coming generations of the greatness, the purity and nobleness of his excellent soul.

I do now, therefore, with the above object in view, present to you and your honorable body of councilmen of the city of Fort Wayne the above painting and beg of you to accept it, with the hope and request that you will at all times have it hung in a conspicuous place in your council chamber, so that those of our people who so desire it can have the privilege of seeing it, and being thereby kept in remembrance of their veneration for the departed hero.

Respectfully yours,
J. B. WHITE.

Mr. Muhler and the city council will, of course, accept the gift and express their gratitude at the meeting Tuesday evening next.

OPEN AGAIN.

County Treasurer Mowrer Will Receive Taxes Without Penalty.

In view of the general solicitation and the numerous pay days this week, County Tresurer Mowrer last evening posted on the entrance to his office a notice that to-morrow, Saturday, he would receive taxes without penalty or cost.

This is a magnanimous act, and one that bestows all honor on Mr. Mowrer, for all the fees arising from delinquency go into his own pockets.

"I have no objection to granting a week of grace to taxpayers," said Mr. Mowrer, "but it delays our settlement with the state treasurer and we are scolded whenever our money is sent in late. The state now needs money worse than she ever has and for that reason I gave notice two weeks ago that I would not receive taxes after Monday. I give way to popular demand, but know that I will be censured by the state treasurer."

President's Appointments To-day—The Offices Not Coming Fast Enough for the Hungry Ones.

The delays for the trip of the president to New York have been arranged. Accompanied by the members of his cabinet and his family, he will leave Washington shortly after midnight on Monday, April 29.

Office seekers, who are applicants for places in which the four year term of office prevails, are much interested in the question as to whether the four years are to be counted from the date of appointment or of confirmation. In many instances there is nearly a years differences in the two dates. Heretofore it has always been the practice to date from the time of confirmation, when a commission of four years is issued, but pressure has been brought to bear to have this changed, and Attorney General Miller has been asked to decide the point.

He has not yet expressed a formal opinion, but he is quoted as being in favor of counting the four years from the date of the original appointment.

A PHENOMENON.

The Great Melott Gas Well at Findlay Breaks the Record.

FINDLAY, Ohio, April 19.—Workmen are now getting ready to try and curb and anchor the monster Melott well, recently drilled north of the city. The task is a hazardous one, and not an enviable job for the drillers. Great crowds of people continue to go out and see the monster, and it is pronounced by all to be the greatest of them all. The workmen are compelled to cover up their ears, or the escaping gas would deafen them.

Two Big Failures.

NEW YORK, April 19.—At the offices of the calendar Insulating and Water Proofing Co., whose embarrassment was announced in these dispatches last night, no one could be found to-day but the sheriff's attendant. Two Hoosier Boys Drowned.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., April 19.—The town is in sadness over the drowning of two of its brightest little boys, Johnnie Beadle, aged nine, and Willie Putterbaugh, eged eight. These, with a companion, Glen Tenbrook, were in a boat on the Allen pond, west of town, when the boat capsized, dropping them into twenty feet of water. Young Tenbrook gained the shore, being older, but his companions went down. It was necessary to drain the pond to recover the bodies.

THE BOOMERS.

Two of Them Narrowly Escape Drowning—No Bloodshed Feared.

WELLINGTON, Kan., April 19.—This morning two Oklahoma boomers attempted to take their outfit across State creek at Forakers ford, two miles south of here. The ford was greatly swollen. The first horses to enter were drowned, while the wagon was carried down stream and its occupants were saved with much difficulty.

The boomers, abandoning the submerged wagon and contents, left the outfit in charge of a neighboring farmer, and mounting horses, galloped to the nearest railway station to take the train for Oklahoma. They say they had traveled 200 miles and were determined to reach Oklahoma.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Mr. H. H. Lusk, editor and proprietor of the Parsons, Kas., Sun, who is in Washington and who comes right from the border of the promised land, does not share with army officers and others the fears expressed about serious trouble in Oklahoma.

SHE WAS CRAZY.

Declaimed Against Theaters and Distributed Money to the Crowd.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Miss Maggie Dunn, a resident of the Town of Lake, while laboring under an hallucination, stood in the rain in front of the Columbia theater, as the audience was gathering last night, and declaimed against the iniquity of theaters and theatergoers.

To show that she was in earnest the girl scattered money broadcast among the crowd of 300 or more that gathered to hear her remarks. When arrested and taken to the armory she had $75 left. An examination as to her sanity will be instituted to-day.

A HOOSIER HANGING!

Sylvester Grubb is Executed at Vincennes for the Murder of Gertie Downie.

VINCENNES, Ind., April 19.—Last evening, Mrs. Denny, who converted Sylvester Grubb, the murderer of Gertie Downie, took her final leave of the doomed man. The separation was very affecting. Grubb retired at 10 o'clock and soon fell asleep and slumbered peacefully all night long.

He rose at 5 o'clock apparently refreshed. He washed and looked bright, though slightly down-cast. He ate his breakfast with much relish. He was then shaved. He talked and joked with the rest of the prisoners. His hands were pinioned behind him while he was being shaved. He seemed anxious to see his family and spoke of them repeatedly. At 9 o'clock Rev. Keith, the Baptist clergyman, went to his cell and remained with him praying and singing until the hour of execution. Grubb said he was prepared to die.

At 11:10 the condemned man was led to the scaffold. His legs were then pinioned and they trembled slightly, though his face showed no signs of fear. His voice was clear and distinct. When asked if he had anything to say, he replied, cooly:

"I have a heap to say, but dare not open my mouth on account of the newspaper men. I am ready; better put on your rope."

He raised his chin, and the black cap was drawn at 11:14; at 11:15 the drop fell. His neck was broken, and he scarcely moved, save a slight tremor of the hands and swaying of the legs. At 11:30 he was pronounced dead. The body was delivered to his brother.

The following is a

HISTORY OF THE CRIME:

About two years before the killing Grubb met Miss Gertie Downie, a pretty and intelligent girl, about seventeen years of age, who had lived at Francisco, Gibson county, a few miles from the home of Grubb. She was well formed, bright and attractive. At their first meeting Grubb fell desperately in love with her. They soon were betrothed and seemed passionately fond of one another.

Their love ran smoothly for many months. They kept regular company until a few months before the murder, when Mrs. Downie, mother of Gertie, protested against her daughter keeping company with Grubb. At last she induced her daughter to dismiss her lover, when he called, and he left her very despondent and sad.

He again met Miss Downie on the morning of September 13, 1888, at the Princeton fair and renewed his appeals to her not to forsake him. She replied: "I don't want to keep company with you."

He turned upon her like a demon, drew his revolver and fired three times, the first shot taking effect in her left arm, the second missed her and the third struck her in the right eye and ranged downward into her mouth. Grubb then placed the revolver to his own temple and snapped it twice, but it failed to fire. The wounded girl lingered four days in great agony when she died.

A NEW KIND OF FUEL.

It has been demonstrated in Vaca Valley, says the Vallejo (Cal.) Chronicle, that peach stones will make as good a fire for household purposes as the best kind of coal in the market. The fruit growers, instead of as heretofore throwing the pits away, dispose of the stones at the present time at the rate of $6 a ton. A sack of stones will weigh about eighty pounds, and will last as long as an equal number of pounds of coal, and give a greater intensity of heat. At many of the orchards in the valley may be seen great stacks of peach and apricot stones, which will eventually find their way to San Francisco and other places to be sold for fuel. The apricot stones do not burn as readily as the peach, and will not command as good a price. The fruit raisers will undoubtedly be pleased to learn that they now have another source of revenue open to them. A large number of peaches are dried during the season for shipment. As soon as the owners find they have a market for the stones a greater number of pounds will be dried than heretofore.

CRANE, of Henderson County, Ill., have a daughter who starts out in life with the following relatives: One great great grandpa, one great grandpa, two grandpas, three great grandmas, two grandmas, six great great uncles, two great great aunts, nine great uncles, eleven great aunts, four uncles, five aunts.

THE Peru democracy have nominated John Faust for mayor.

THE president absolutely refuses to further postpone the application of the civil service rules after May 1.

MR. CLEVELAND has accepted the invitation of the Young Men's democratic club, of New York, to a public dinner to be given in his honor on May 20.

AN old man from North Carolina went to Plymouth church last Sunday to hear Henry Ward Beecher. He had not read a newspaper for twenty years and hadn't heard of his death.

"OKLAHOMA," an Indian word meaning "Indian country," is now the talisman that is leading thousands of deluded people from all parts of the United States to their ruin.

CONGRESSMAN CHARLES GIBSON, the Adonis of the house of representatives, will be married Tuesday to Mrs. Margret Powell Hollyday, of Radcliffe Manor, Talbot County, Md.

TO-DAY is the 114th anniversary of the battle of Lexington. The citizens of that town were aroused by fife and drum early in the morning, and an address was delivered by Edward Everett Hale.

THE Ligonier Banner, a bright and forcible democratic newspaper, was twenty-four years old this week. The first number was issued by Hon. J. B. Stoll and Mr. J. E. McDonald. He still retains an interest in its publication.

THE board of commissioners of the state soldiers' and sailors' monument have issued, in a neatly bound volume, their first biennial report to December 31, 1888. It is an extended report of the board's action, and shows at a glance the expenditures made since the beginning of their work.

LAKE MICHIGAN is thirty inches lower on a level than it was two years ago and the lowering process seems still to be continuing. There seems to be an ebb and flow of the waters of the great lakes that have for their period seven or eight years. Several explanations are given for this phenomenon.

THE Wells county commissioners have received an offer of 99 cents on the dollar for the $125,000 court house building bonds, bearing 4½ per cent. interest, from J. W. Gillbough, of New York, and have accepted the proposition. It is likely that the first bonds will be made payable in five years and the last fifteen years from date.

TREMENDOUS pressure has been brought to bear upon Secretary Noble, of the interior department, to remove the 150 democratic special examiners in the pension office and substitute republicans in their places. To all of these appeals the secretary has replied that he will make no changes before June 1, and that then they will all have to go.

THE appeal from Judge Howland's decision in the state loan case has been filed in the office of the supreme court clerk, and the argument upon the constitutionality of the act authorizing the issuance of the bonds was heard to-day. There is nothing special in Judge Howland's ruling to indicate that the general state loan bill will be declared unconstitutional. It was a means of reaching the supreme court, and was entirely friendly.

THE Episcopal churches of the diocese of Indiana will hold religious services on April 30, the centennial anniversary of Washington's inauguration. Bishop Knickerbacker suggests that such parts of Washington's inauguration address as show his reliance and faith in God be read. As Washington belonged to the American church the bishop also desires that the words of common prayer and the services used in St. Paul's chapel, New York, a hundred years ago, be reproduced.

Dr. SAMUEL W. GROSS, of Philadelphia, in his time the greatest of American writers on surgery and kindred topics, as well as an eminent practitioner and finished scholar, is dead, aged fifty-two years. He was widely known and many of the younger practitioners of the west were students under him. He was physician to all the Philadelphia hospitals and a lecturer at the Jefferson medical college, where in 1882, on the retirement of his father, Professor Samuel D. Gross, he succeeded to one of the two chairs between which that great surgeon's professorship was divided, and continued his lectures on surgery with success up to the close of the last session. As a prolific writer for medical periodicals Dr. Gross was recognized as an authority, and besides he aided his father materially in editing his "System of Surgery," a work of two volumes, containing 2,400 pages and illustrated by 1,400 engravings. This publication is said to be the most elaborate and exhaustive work on surgery ever written.

THE OKLAHOMA FOLLY.

The telegrams tell us this morning that 20,000 people are on the Oklahoma border awaiting permission to move on the new territory and on the side come awful tales of murder and robbery.

How could it be otherwise, for already on the borders of the Indian territory, standing like racers listening for the pistol shot that tells them to go, is an army of eager, and in most cases desperate men, ready to bound forward for the goal upon which their eyes have so long been fixed with that longing which only comes from prohibition. There are today encamped along the southern line of Kansas and the northern line of Texas fully twenty thousand men, women and children, who are waiting to rush into the promised land and get a home. Reports from all sections of the country indicate that fully as many more are waiting until next week, when a grand rush will be made to the border. In other words, twenty thousand determined and desperate men will struggle for the possession of five thousand farms.

One million eight hundred thousand acres of land will, on the twenty-second day of this month, be thrown open to settlement in 160 acre farms. That means 11,250 farms lie waiting tillage. This fact is as far as the average home-seeker looks and his intention is to be one of the lucky ones who will profit by the opening of a magnificent domain which merely needs scratching to yield affluence to the possessor.

By taking eight of these farms out of each township which are reserved by the government it will reduce the total to 10,547 tracts of 160 acres each. Over ten thousand farms are to be opened for occupation.

No means have been left untried to induce the farmers of the land to believe that the whole tract of Oklahoma was one of the most fertile that graces the terrestrial globe. Interviews, pen pictures, maps, lectures and in fact everything known to the advertising art, has been constantly blazoning to the world that Oklahoma was the El Dorado of modern times.

Of the 10,547 tracts of 160 acres each at least one-half are untillable and fully one-third are not even suitable for grazing purposes. Along the streams which are tributary to the Canadian river the land is fair to look upon and is fully up to the standard of excellence described in the circulars sent out by the scheming land speculators and town site sharks. The land lies well and is heavily timbered, being fine farming country, but it is no better than thousands of acres in Missouri, Kansas and Texas; which can be had almost on the same terms.

Away from the streams the country changes its aspect entirely, and instead of fertile fields of rolling green is seen nothing but the rocky and sterile hills or the wide expanse of sand and alkali flats, whose baked surface means death, not only to vegetation, but to animals that long remain in the locality. It is not alone the land that is dead, but the poisonous vapors that constantly arise so infect the very air and water that it becomes a veritable terra del muerto, or land of death.

At least one-half of the land to be opened will not be selected by the settlers and the scramble will be for about five thousand farms. If there is such a thing as retributive justice those men who have by their false statements and glowing word pictures led the poor of many states to believe that a land flowing with milk and honey was to be opened to them will have an awful reckoning at the bar of judgment.

That Tired Feeling.

Afflicts nearly every one in the spring. The system having become accustomed to the bracing air of winter, is weakened by the warm days of the changing season, and readily yields to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine needed. It tones and builds up every part of the body, and also expels all impurities from the blood. Try it this season.

The South Bend base ball club is to reorganize.

A Sensible Man.

Would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and Lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles, than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merit of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Sheridan will have a sure-enough canning factory.

A drug clerk recently wrote to the famous newspaper correspondent, Eleanor Kirk, that he did not think it wrong to substitute witch hazel for Pond's Extract. She replied as follows: "This is cool. According to such logic a dry goods dealer could justify himself in sending unbleached muslin when one had ordered cambric. It is a question involving the right of the purchaser to the article he wants. When I send for Pond's Extract and am furnished with water-flavored hamamelis, there will certainly be some words spoken."

Decatur will require property owners to set out shade trees.

How to Reduce Your Expenses.

You can do it easily, and you will not have to deprive yourself of a single comfort; on the contrary, you will enjoy life more than ever. How can you accomplish this result? Easily; cut down your doctor's bills. When you lose your appetite, and become bilious and constipated, and therefore low-spirited, don't rush off to the family physician for a prescription, or, on the other hand, wait until you are dead sick before doing something for yourself, but go to the

THE KNIGHTS.

The Pythian Legions to Have a Grand Time at Warsaw.

Capt. F. N. Kollock this morning received this letter, which indicates the wonderful interest manifested in the coming encampment of the Knights of Pythias at Warsaw:

Mr. George H. Daniels, Vice Central Traffic Association, Chicago, Ill.

DEAR SIR:—I would respectfully call your attention to the meeting of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias of Indiana, to be held at Warsaw, Indiana, during the second week or third week in August, 1889, from Monday to Monday. This meeting is being strongly agitated, and there is every prospect for a very large turning out of Knights of Pythias, and their friends, together with the public generally, on this occasion.

The Uniform rank comprises fifty-two divisions, distributed throughout the state, from the river to the lakes, with a combined membership of nearly 1,900. These divisions will be present. In addition, the order in general (Knights of Pythias) have more than 20,000 members in the state, and as evidenced in the past, a very large per cent. of them can be relied upon to go. The meeting occurs at a season when the business men want a rest, and will take advantage of a low rate, and with their families spend their week of vacation at this place.

There is every reason to believe that the society will equal, and perhaps surpass, previous conventions of similar character, as the spirit of the order is active in the highest degree—more so at the present time than other secret organizations.

Under the above named conditions, and with the attractions to be offered on this occasion, there is every reason to expect a large attendance. Of course, it is vitally necessary that the rates made by the different lines of railroad should be very reasonable, and I would request that you give this your careful attention, and trust you will favor the granting of a rate of, say, one fare for the round trip from points within fifty miles, and one cent per mile each way from points at greater distances. Tickets to be good going on Monday and Tuesday of the week selected, and good returning until the following Tuesday. Warsaw being a small town, you will readily see that there would be no possibility of tickets being handled by brokers.

The supreme chancellor K. of P. of the world and the major general of the U., R., with other distinguished members of the order, and their friends, will be present. Sufficient attractions will be given each day to induce crowds of people outside of the order to attend.

Thursday of the week selected will be made the great day. On this day members of the rank and the order have been invited, and are expected to be present, from Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Kentucky. We are asking these special rates for members of the rank and order, and their friends who will arrive there on Monday and Tuesday, and who will remain until the close of the encampment.

I have every reason to believe that the rates indicated herein will insure the attendance of from four to five thousand people, including the uniform rank and the order and their friends, all to be landed there by Tuesday, to remain during the encampment.

Will you kindly advise at as early a date as convenient, the most favorable rates we may expect?

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to take. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A party organ magnifies one side and dwarfs the other. No sensible man wants to be trifled with in this fashion. The above cut represents the HOWARD FURNACE, which obtains by its construction, advantages over all others. It is the most Scientific, Practical and Simple heater yet produced. It has the largest radiating surface, wherein the heat is circulated around and contained in the furnace instead of passing directly into the chimney. This furnace does not burn over one ton of coal a month in the coldest weather and in some instances less. This furnace will also heat by means of hot water, thereby reaching distant rooms where hot air cannot. It is low down and can be set in the lowest cellar and still allow hot air pipes to be taken from the top instead of the side of the casting as in all other furnaces.

LONG LIFE.

There is nothing in the world more generally desired than long life, yet the majority of people put off caring for their health—not because they are really careless, but because we live our lives at such a pace we have not time to give the subject sufficient thought until we receive a reminder in the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are constantly bewildered by the various schools of medicine, and the physicians who represent them, and often blunder in our choice of a doctor.

If people only knew that the very best health-keeper, life-preserver and disease preventer that has yet been discovered, is simmered down into a concentrated and very palatable form in the shape of New Style Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, they would not hesitate a moment to try it.

But they do not know. How can they know, when so many not only worthless, but positively injurious drugs are constantly flooding the market under various names and guises, that the New Style Vinegar Bitters is as bad as any of them?

They do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It straightens out a tangled-up system in a very short while, and those who buy it once buy it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sent out by a responsible house, and is exactly as represented. It costs but a dollar for a very large bottle. Try it once and you will never be so glad of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it says New Style Pleasant Taste on carton and bottle before you take it. Try it, and you will feel happier than if you had found a gold mine, for it really is a mine—of health.

"BUT LITTLE NEWS,"

Was the Reply of Everybody, But Our Reporter Made the Rounds and This is His Budget.

The east and west trains on the Wabash road were late this morning.

E. E. Murray, auditor of the Grand Rapids road, was in the city yesterday.

The Nickel Plate train men report a fierce storm at Stony Island last night.

Samuel Kuntz, of the Olds wheel works, is becoming an expert bicyclist.

Frank Walker, of the Pittsburg telegraph offices, has been on the sick list for a few days.

Superintendent of Motive Power F. D. Casanave, has been at Altoona, Pa., for the last few days.

C. L. Daseler, shipping clerk at the Pittsburg car shops, is off duty to-day observing Good Friday.

George Schrack, machinist at the Bass works, is erecting a handsome new house on Madison street.

Seymour Boyd, of the Bass offices, has recovered from his recent illness and resumed his position.

The Lima car works has a strike on its hands, all the men in the erecting department having struck for more pay.

Joe Heit, clerk at the Olds wheel works, is lottering off his old bicycle and will purchase a handsome new one.

F. A. Nikolai is running one of the hammers at the Pittsburg blacksmith shops to-day in the absence of Mr. Haverly.

James Andrews, of the Nickel Plate, while engaged in driving piles at Hobart, Ind., was badly injured in the back.

The Wabash is placing some handsome new fruit and vegetable cars into service. They are made at the Toledo shops.

G. T. Williams, superintendent of telegraph of the Nickel Plate road, was in the city yesterday, registered at the Wayne.

The Standard Oil company has decided to erect car works at Lima, O., in which to do all the building and repairing of its tank line cars.

John LeVack, formerly of the Bass works, is now employed at White's Fruit House, in a position which he has held for the last two months.

Four locomotives came into the Pittsburg shops this week for repairs and four were sent out. There are now eleven in the works for repairs.

There are a number of Lutherans employed in the manufactories of the city and most of them are off duty to-day on account of "Good Friday" services.

A canvass just completed shows that there are employed on the systems of roads owned and controlled by the Pennsylvania railroad company 89,359 persons.

Louis Kernerk and George Myers, of the Pittsburg shops, will go to Williamsport to-morrow to be the battery in a base ball game which takes place there Sunday.

The Vandalia line has just appointed a commercial agent at Cleveland to have charge of their freight interests for the territory east of Toledo to Buffalo and all north of the Fort Wayne road in Ohio.

The projectors of the American Midland, of the old New York, Mahoning and Western road say that they will have the road completed and passenger trains running between Tiffin and Fort Wayne on July 4.

The employes of the Pittsburg machine shops have contributed a very beautiful floral offering to be lald upon the coffin of Mary, the little daughter of Mr. Julius Bennigan, who is an employe of the works.

One of the cab drivers of the city charged an old lady $1.50 this morning to haul her from the Wayne hotel to the Wabash depot. The lady thought the charge exhorbitant, but rather than make a fuss paid it. She was a stranger and was on her way to Boston, Mass.

Some of the departments of the railroad and manufacturing shops were almost deserted this morning on account of so many of the employes being absent from duty attending the religious services incident to Good Friday. Our reporter in his rounds missed many familiar faces, and if his budget of personal and local gossip is not what it ought to be to-day, this may be assigned as one of the reasons.

Centlivre's Book Beer will be out to-morrow; call for it. 19-2t

An elegant new station house, capable of protecting fifteen hundred people from sun or rain. The island has been improved, sleeping rooms overhauled, buildings painted, new restaurant and dance hall erected. All the old buildings have been painted, and with two dance halls, enlarged restaurant, with twenty-five new climber boats added to the already large fleet there, makes Home City the most attractive, cleanest and best resort for picnics or excursion parties.

TROUBLE FEARED.

Italians Imported to Take the Place of White Labor.

There are rumors of serious trouble likely to occur at Liberty Center, Wells county.

It seems that the "Clover Leaf" Railroad company has gravel pits there and has employed heretofore the labor of parties living in that locality. To these men, it is said, they had been paying $1.30 per day. Recently, however, the company secured and put to work in the pits a gang of 100 Italians, and it is said, paid them ninety cents per day. This, of course, has displaced the native laborers, and the feeling has arisen to a high pitch. From the reports it would seem that threats of a very serious character had been made, but it is to be hoped that they may not be put into execution.

It is a practical example of how the tariff protects the laboring man.

Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

ANIMAL LANGUAGE.

It is a favorite notion among barbarian tribes that the lower orders of animals understand the language of mankind, and are pleased to be addressed in flattering words. All Indians believe that the bear, in particular, understands anything said to him.

Yacuts, of Siberia, call the bear Lord, Illustrious, Old Man, Good Father, and beg of him humbly the permission to continue their journey.

The tiger is named Lord or Grandfather by the Cambodia tribes, and the Anamites call him Sir Tiger and address prayers to him.

Philippine islanders beg the crocodiles not to do them any harm, while inhabitants of one of the Fijt Islands think the shark will not attack them if they call out, "I am from Columbia," their village.

Guaranis, of Brazil, when the horses of Europeans were restless, begged them to be still and promised to feed them well.

Some natives of the Marianne Islands carried presents to a horse to obtain from him permission to pull a few hairs out of his tail.

A Great Surprise.

Is in store for all those who use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free? It never fails to cure acute pain or chronic coughs. All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam. Large bottles 50c and $1.

TWO METHODS OF LIFE.

Human life may be painted according to two methods. There is the stage method. According to that each character is duly marshalled at first, and ticketed; and we know with an immutable certainty, that at the right crisis each one will reappear and act his part and, when the curtain falls, all will stand before it bowing. There is a sense of satisfaction in this and of completeness.

But there is another method—the method of the life we lead. Here nothing can be prophesied. There is a strange coming and going of feet. Men appear, act, and react upon each other, and pass away. When the crisis comes the man who would fit it does not return. When the curtain falls no one is ready. When the footlights are brightest they are blown out, and what the name of the play is no one knows. If there sits a spectator who knows, he sits so high that the players in the gaslight cannot hear his breathing. Life may be painted according to either method; but the methods are different. The canons of criticism that bear upon the one cut cruelly upon the other.—The Story of an African Farm.

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC has cured me of a malignant breaking out on my leg, which caused intolerable pain. It was called Eczema by the doctors—four of whom treated me with no relief. I candidly confess that I owe my present good health to S. S. S., which in my estimation is invaluable as a blood remedy.

MISS JULIA DEWITT,

Our baby when two months old was attacked with Scrofula, which for a long time destroyed her eyesight entirely, and caused us to despair of her life. The doctors failed to relieve her, and we gave SWIFT'S SPECIFIC, which soon cured her entirely, and she is now hale and hearty.

Miss Goldthwaite enacted the title role with the utmost satisfaction and other members of the cast were fair. To-night "Pique" will be the play and from the enthusiasm shown last evening the house will be well filled. The engagement will close to-morrow with a matinee and evening performance.

In the supreme court of the state yesterday at Indianapolis, Judge Elliott, in affirming the decision previously rendered by Judge O'Rourke in the case of Catherine Stegemeier, administratrix, vs. the Pennsylvania road, taken from Allen county, said in substance: Where an ordinance of a city requires a railroad company to maintain gates and a flagman at a street crossing, a person seeing the gates open and no flagman has a right to rely upon safely crossing, and, if he is struck by one of two approaching trains, the company cannot escape liability on the grond that the decedent was negligent in not looking or listening for himself.

"People who ride on the street cars and find fault with us drivers would have a little more patience and charity for us if they knew what we have to do and contend with," remarked a knight of the car hook. "Driving a street car comes mighty near being a dog's life, and we are mighty busy. We have to make change and watch that all fares are paid, keep the boys off the rear of the car, watch out for passengers and for other cars at crossings, see that the horses don't run away, watch our cash box, drive so as to make the proper time, remember just where every old lady wants to get off, keep from running over some one's pet dog or child, answer 500 questions, most of which are foolish and look out for counterfeit money."

At the business meeting of the directors of the City Y. M. C. A., last evening, it was decided to employ Mr. Bowers, of Reading, Pa., as secretary of the association. He will return in August and assume his position.

The services at the Grace Reformed church on the coming Sabbath promise to be among the most interesting in the history of the church. The admission of a large number of new members, the baptism of adults and infants and the celebration of the holy supper, will be among the interesting features of the morning service. In the evening the Ladies Missionary society will render a service of original and select readings and recitations. The choir will furnish excellent singing for the day. The church will be decorated with plants and flowers appropriate for Easter day.

The ladies fair at the Academy last night was well patronized, at least 600 people being in attendance. The stage attraction was the "Mistletoe Bough, or Genevieve." Miss Addie Davis played the part of the Bride; O. C. Yates was Bridegroom; Ivers Leonard was the Baron; Blanche Harmon, Baroness; Lida Boseker, Matron, and W. A. Ross, Officiating Clergyman. The other characters were taken by the Misses Elma Harmon, Crissie Davis, George Jacks and others. Before the opening scene Mrs. S. A. Northrop sang a beautiful solo.

ANOTHER LEARNED SHOEMAKER.

Mr. John Mackintosh, author of "The History of Civilization in Scotland," who will write the volume "Scotland" in the "Story of the Nations Series," is in many respects a remarkable man. He was sent to work on a farm in his native county of Banff at 10 years of age, and was subsequently apprenticed to shoemaking, at which trade he worked in various parts of Scotland for fourteen years. In 1869 he opened a small stationary shop in Aberdeen, "and there on the shop counter," he once wrote, "amid all the noise and bustle of a stirring thoroughfare, the three volumes of my history were written and the proof sheets corrected and revised, all being done while customers were coming in and out and constantly interrupting me."

Mr. Mackintosh's shop is passed daily by the professors on their way to the university, and at one time several of them were in the habit of calling occasionally and having a chat with the literary shoemaker. He was accorded the privilege, too, of using the university library. His history consists of four portly volumes, the last and best dealing with the moral and material advancement of the country. Mr. Mackintosh has been in the habit all his life of rising before 4 a. m. He says he finds the early morning hours the best for literary work.—Pall Mall Gazette.

A BIG VICTORY.

A. C. Trentman Wins the Case Brought by the Miller Estate.

Something like a year ago Mr. A. H. Bittinger, administrator for the Miller estate, brought suit to recover from A. C. Trentman $10,000, a loss which it was alleged the estate suffered by reason of Mr. Trentman taking control of Mr. Miller's grocery store, on Columbia street, on claims held against the house by him.

The case has been on trial for a week past, before Judge Chapin and a jury, and this morning a verdict was returned in favor of Mr. Trentman, freeing him from all liability.

The World Ought to Know It.

The world ought to know what S. S. S. has done for me in the cure of a malignant cancer, which was so bad as to be considered incurable by the physicians in Chicago, where I went to be treated. The hospital surgeons gave me up, saying they could do nothing for me. One of my neighbors sent me a copy of an advertisement cut from a paper in regard to Swift's Specific, and I began taking it. I got relief from the first few doses; the poison was gradually forced out of my system, and I was soon cured sound and well. It is now ten months since I quit taking S. S. S. and I have had no sign of return of the dreadful disease.

A RIVER HORROR!

A Steamer Sinks in the Mississippi River and Five Persons are Drowned.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, April 19.—The steamer Everett, belonging to the Burlington lumber company, was sunk at the head of Otter Island last night, and five of the sixteen persons on board were drowned. The names of the dead are Captain Vincent Peel, Mrs. Harry Bell (clerk) and her three-year-old daughter, George Howard (first cook), and a nurse girl, name unknown. The Everett was on her way from this city to New Boston Bay, when, about 7 o'clock last evening, she was struck by a terrific gale and sunk in twenty feet of water.

Ten persons were on the lower deck or in other open parts of the boat and were flung into the water as the craft sunk. They all managed to escape by swimming to the over-turned craft and clinging to the small portion of it which remained above water.

Capt. Vincent Peel, Mrs. Harry Bell and her three-year-old daughter, George Howard and wife, respectively first and second cook, and a nurse girl, name unknown, were in the cabin. This was submerged and filled with water, all but one small corner.

Mrs. Howard found this and remained in it, calling for help, until the roof was broken in, and she was rescued almost dead. All the others were drowned. Captain Peel leaves a wife and several children, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard a little child. The body of Mrs. Bell has been recovered, but the others are supposed to be still in the cabin. The survivors called for help until their cries were heard, and they were rescued from the wreck in a skiff. They were taken to the Illinois shore, where they made a fire. The only man in the company who could swim escaped without a wetting, by climbing up the stanchions, and he, fortunately, had matches in his pocket. The boat is valued at $6,000, but will be raised with a small loss.

The New School Book Law to be Hurried Into Operation.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 19.—The state board of education has concluded consideration of the new school book law and the determination is to have it in operation for the fall school term, or as soon thereafter as possible.

The advertisement setting forth the provisions to be considered in making bids will appear in all the papers, in accordance with the law, on Tuesday, April 23, and May 28 the sealed proposals will be opened.

It was decided by the adoption of a resolution that the number of text books shall be construed literally as follows: One spelling book, five reading books, two arithmetics, two geographies, two English grammars, one physiology, one history United States, six copy-books.

A BIG ONE.

A New Gas Well Near Muncie With an Outflow of 12,000,000 Feet Per Day.

MUNCIE, April 19.—The largest gas well ever drilled in Delaware county was developed yesterday, on the land of the Delaware county land and improvement company west of the city about one mile. The capacity is estimated at 12,000,000 cubic feet per day, and the flow of gas is so strong that the drillers have found it next to impossible to pack it. Heavy weights pitched into the mouth of the six-inch orifice are thrown up through the derrick, a distance of one hundred feet, with the velocity of a huge ball shot out of a cannon.

Pardoned and Paroled.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 19.—Robert S. Miller, of Peru, sentenced to the northern penitentiary for manslaughter for two years was pardoned yesterday by Governor Hovey. Miller was deputy marshal of Peru, and killed a man who unduly provoked him. The governor also paroled Sam Williams, of Boonville, sentenced from Warrick county for manslaughter. He has served seven years of the ten for which he was sentenced. He had two trials, and the judges, prosecutor and juries in both cases joined in asking the executive clemency. A violation of his pledge to abstain from liquor and to keep the peace is conditional in the parole.

Will Not Pay the Fees.

ANGOLA, Ind., April 19.—As a sequel to the travesty upon justice in the Crandall liquor license case in the Whitley circuit court, that county has sent a bill to this county for $103 fees for the jury, which Judge Adair decided had nothing to do in the decision of the case. Auditor Wood will not issue an order for the payment of the bill until compelled to do so by mandamus, and tax-payers will fight its payment to the bitter end.

GOT INTO THE WRONG HOUSE.

A Couple of Illicit Lovers Unceremoniously Bounced by a Landlord.

A pretty lively scene happened in one of the hotels of this city yesterday afternoon. Two young ladies arrived at the place, and, professing to be weary with travel, were given a room where they could rest for a few hours. Shortly afterwards a young man, who said he was a brother of the ladies, stepped into the office, inquired for them, and asked to be shown to their room. The clerk on duty was somewhat "green at the business," and he complied with his request.

The fellow had not been in the room very long when the proprietor arrived at the office. The clerk told him what he had done and in three minutes he was at the locked door of his guests' room pounding for admittance. The fellow was slow in obeying his demands and when the landlord entered he found his suspicions of illicit lovers verified. There was a high time in that house for a while. The landlord was so angered at the movements of the trio and at the thought of their making his house such a resort, that he started to call the police to have the three arrested, but the young fellow pleaded so piteously that he finally relented, and after giving them "his opinion," couched in pretty strong language, allowed them to depart. The guilty lovers had got into the wrong house.

A HANDSOME GIFT.

Hon. J. B. White Presents the Portrait of Washington to the City.

Hon. J. B. White is always doing the handsome thing, and to-day his generosity and patriotism were jointly manifested to a degree that must find the warmest appreciation in the hearts of his fellow citizens.

The letter received by Hon. C. F. Muhler this morning explains itself:

Hon. C. F. Muhler, Mayor of the City of Fort Wayne:

DEAR SIR—The portrait of George Washington, which has just been completed by the talented artist, Ambrose McNeil, and which is now on exhibition at the bookstore of Messrs. Benner, Cradsley & Co., in this city, and which is pronounced by all who have seen it, as a most true and admirable likeness of the great patriot, and in keeping with things in Washington City, where in the great council chamber or house of representatives, there hangs the likeness of the immortal hero, the father of his country, so that all who visit that place may look upon and behold it, and which is a continual reminder to the present and coming generations of the greatness, the purity and nobleness of his excellent soul.

I do now, therefore, with the above object in view, present to you and your honorable body of councilmen of the city of Fort Wayne the above painting and beg of you to accept it, with the hope and request that you will at all times have it hung in a conspicuous place in your council chamber, so that those of our people who so desire it can have the privilege of seeing it, and being thereby kept in remembrance of their veneration for the departed hero.

Respectfully yours,
J. B. WHITE.

Mr. Muhler said the city council will, of course, accept the gift and express their gratitude at the meeting Tuesday evening next.

OPEN AGAIN.

County Treasurer Mowrer Will Receive Taxes Without Penalty.

In view of the general solicitation and the numerous pay days this week, County Treasurer Mowrer last evening posted on the entrance to his office a notice that to-morrow, Saturday, he would receive taxes without penalty or cost.

This is a magnanimous act, and one that bestows all honor on Mr. Mowrer, for all the fees arising from delinquency go into his own pockets.

"I have no objection to granting a week of grace to taxpayers," said Mr. Mowrer, "but it delays our settlement with the state treasurer and we are scolded whenever our money is sent in late. The state now needs money worse than she ever has and for that reason I gave notice two weeks ago that I would not receive taxes after Monday. I give way to popular demand, but know that I will be censured by the state treasurer."

LOCAL LINES.

President's Appointments To-day —The Offices Not Coming Fast Enough for the Hungry Ones.

WASHINGTON, April 19—The president to-day made the following appointments:

Solon W. Stocking, of Onandiagua, N. Y., examiner-in-chief in the patent office.

Messrs. King and Witherspe, of the New York centennial committee, are in the city. They called on Secretary Blaine to-day and got from him a promise to respond to the toast, "The House of Representatives," at the grand banquet on April 30. The delays for the trip of the president to New York have been arranged. Accompanied by the members of his cabinet and his family, he will leave Washington shortly after midnight on Monday, April 29.

Office seekers, who are applicants for places in which the four year term of office prevails, are much interested in the question as to whether the four years are to be counted from the date of appointment or of confirmation. In many instances there is nearly a years difference in the two dates. Heretofore it has always been the practice to date from the time of confirmation, when a commission of four years is issued, but pressure has been brought to bear to have this changed, and Attorney General Miller has been asked to decide the point.

He has not yet expressed a formal opinion, but he is quoted as being in favor of counting the four years from the date of the original appointment.

A PHENOMENON.

The Great Molott Gas Well at Findlay Breaks the Record.

FINDLAY, Ohio, April 19.—Workmen are now getting ready to try and curb and anchor the monster Molott well, recently drilled north of the city. The task is a hazardous one, and not an unviable job for the drillers. Great crowds of people continue to go out and see the monster, and it is pronounced by all to be the greatest of them all. The workmen are compelled to cover up their ears, or the escaping gas would deafen them.

Two Hoosier Boys Drowned.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., April 19.—The town is in sadness over the drowning of two of its brightest little boys, Johnnie Beadle, aged nine, and Willie Putterbaugh, aged eight. These, with a companion, Glen Tenbrook, were in a boat on the Allen pond, west of town, when the boat capsized, dropping them into twenty feet of water. Young Tenbrook gained the shore, being older, but his companions went down. It was necessary to drain the pond to recover the bodies.

WELLINGTON, Kan., April 19.—This morning two Oklahoma boomers attempted to take their outfit across State creek at Farmers ford, two miles south of here. The ford was greatly swollen. The first horses to enter were drowned, while the wagon was carried down stream and its occupants were saved with much difficulty.

The boomers, abandoning the submerged wagon and contents, left the outfit in charge of a neighboring farmer, and mounting horses, galloped to the nearest railway station to take the train for Oklahoma. They say they had traveled 200 miles and were determined to reach Oklahoma.

CHICAGO, April 19.—Miss Maggie Dunn, a resident of the Town of Lake, while laboring under an hallucination, stood in the rain in front of the Columbia theater, as the audience was gathering last night, and declaimed against the iniquity of theaters and theatergoers.

To show that she was in earnest the girl scattered money broadcast among the crowd of 300 or more that gathered to hear her remarks. When arrested and taken to the armory she had $75 left. An examination as to her sanity will be instituted to-day.

A HOOSIER HANGING!

Sylvester Grubb is Executed at Vincennes for the Murder of Gertie Downie.

VINCENNES, Ind., April 19.—Last evening, Mrs. Denny, who converted Sylvester Grabb, the murderer of Gertie Downie, took her final leave of the doomed man. The separation was very affecting. Grubb retired at 10 o'clock and soon fell asleep and slumbered peacefully all night long.

He rose at 5 o'clock apparently refreshed. He washed and looked bright, though slightly down-cast. He ate his breakfast with much relish. He was then shaved. He talked and joked with the rest of the prisoners. His hands were pinioned behind him while he was being shaved. He seemed anxious to see his family and spoke of them repeatedly. At 9 o'clock Rev. Keith, the Baptist clergyman, went to his cell and remained with him praying and singing until the hour of execution. Grubb said he was prepared to die.

At 11:10 the condemned man was led to the scaffold. His legs were then pinioned and they trembled slightly, though his face showed no signs of fear. His voice was clear and distinct. When asked if he had anything to say, he replied, coolly:

"I have a heap to say, but dare not open my mouth on account of the newspaper men. I am ready; better put on your rope."

He raised his chin, and the black cap was drawn at 11:14; at 11:15 the drop fell. His neck was broken, and he scarcely moved, save a slight tremor of the hands and swaying of the legs. At 11:20 he was pronounced dead. The body was delivered to his brother.

The following is a

About two years before the killing Grubb met Miss Gertie Downie, a pretty and intelligent girl, about seventeen years of age, who had lived at Francisco, Gibson county, a few miles from the home of Grubb. She was well formed, bright and attractive. At their first meeting Grubb fell desperately in love with her. They soon were betrothed and seemed passionately fond of one another.

Their love ran smoothly for many months. They kept regular company until a few months before the murder, when Mrs. Downie, mother of Gertie, protested against her daughter keeping company with Grubb. At last she induced her daughter to dismiss her lover, when he called, and he left her very despondent and sad.

He again met Miss Downie on the morning of September 18, 1888, at the Princeton fair and renewed his appeals to her not to forsake him. She replied: "I don't want to keep company with you."

He turned upon her like a demon, drew his revolver and fired three times, the first shot taking effect in her left arm, the second missed her and the third struck her in the right eye and ranged downward into her mouth. Grubb then placed the revolver to his own temple and snapped it twice, but it failed to fire. The wounded girl lingered four days in great agony when she died.

A NEW KIND OF FUEL.

It has been demonstrated in Vaca Valley, says the Vallejo (Cal.) Chronicle, that peach stones will make as good a fire for household purposes as the best kind of coal in the market. The fruit growers, instead of as heretofore throwing the pits away, dispose of the stones at the present time at the rate of $6 a ton. A sack of stones will weigh about eighty pounds, and will last as long as an equal number of pounds of coal, and give a greater intensity of heat. At many of the orchards in the valley may be seen great stacks of peach and apricot stones, which will eventually find their way to San Francisco and other places to be sold for fuel. The apricot stones do not burn as readily as the peach, and will not command as good a price. The fruit raisers will undoubtedly be pleased to learn that they now have another source of revenue open to them. A large number of peaches are dried during the season for shipment. As soon as the owners find they have a market for the stones a greater number of pounds will be dried than heretofore.

THE Bluffton Bayle is going to issue a daily edition in May.

THE Peru democracy have nominated John Faust for mayor.

THE president absolutely refuses to further postpone the application of the civil service rules after May 1.

MR. CLEVELAND has accepted the invitation of the Young Men's democratic club, of New York, to a public dinner to be given in his honor on May 20.

AN old man from North Carolina went to Plymouth church last Sunday to hear Henry Ward Beecher. He had not read a newspaper for twenty years and hadn't heard of his death.

"OKLAHOMA," an Indian word meaning "Indian country," is now the talisman that is leading thousands of deluded people from all parts of the United States to their ruin.

CONGRESSMAN CHARLES GIBSON, the Adonis of the house of representatives, will be married Tuesday to Mrs. Margret Powell Hollyday, of Radcliffe Manor, Talbot County, Md.

TO-DAY is the 114th anniversary of the battle of Lexington. The citizens of that town were aroused by fife and drum early in the morning, and an address was delivered by Edward Everett Hale.

THE Ligonier Banner, a bright and forcible democratic newspaper, was twenty-four years old this week. The first number was issued by Hon. J. B. Stoll and Mr. J. E. McDonald. He still retains an interest in its publication.

THE board of commissioners of the state soldiers' and sailors' monument have issued, in a neatly bound volume, their first biennial report to December 31, 1888. It is an extended report of the board's action, and shows at a glance the expenditures made since the beginning of their work.

LAKE MICHIGAN is thirty inches lower on a level than it was two years ago and the lowering process seems still to be continuing. There seems to be an ebb and flow of the waters of the great lakes that have for their period seven or eight years. Several explanations are given for this phenomenon.

THE Wells county commissioners have received an offer of 99 cents on the dollar for the $125,000 court house building bonds, bearing 4½ per cent. interest, from J. W. Gilbough, of New York, and have accepted the proposition. It is likely that the first bonds will be made payable in five years and the last fifteen years from date.

TREMENDOUS pressure has been brought to bear upon Secretary Noble, of the interior department, to remove the 150 democratic special examiners in the pension office and substitute republicans in their places. To all of those appeals the secretary has replied that he will make no changes before June 1, and that then they will all have to go.

THE appeal from Judge Howland's decision in the state loan case has been filed in the office of the supreme court clerk, and the argument upon the constitutionality of the act authorizing the issuance of the bonds was heard to-day. There is nothing special in Judge Howland's ruling to indicate that the general state loan bill will be declared unconstitutional. It was a means of reaching the supreme court, and was entirely friendly.

THE Episcopal churches of the diocese of Indiana will hold religious services on April 30, the centennial anniversary of Washington's inauguration. Bishop Knickerbacker suggests that such parts of Washington's inauguration address as show his reliance and faith in God be read. As Washington belonged to the American church the bishop also desires that the words of common prayer and the services used in St. Paul's chapel, New York, a hundred years ago, be reproduced.

DR. SAMUEL W. GROSS, of Philadelphia, in his time the greatest of American writers on surgery and kindred topics, as well as an eminent practitioner and finished scholar, is dead, aged fifty-two years. He was widely known and many of the younger practitioners of the west were students under him. He was physician to all the Philadelphia hospitals and a lecturer at the Jefferson medical college, where in 1882, on the retirement of his father, Professor Samuel D. Gross, he succeeded to one of the two chairs between which that great surgeon's professorship was divided, and continued his lectures on surgery with success up to the close of the last session. As a prolific writer for medical periodicals Dr. Gross was recognized as an authority, and besides he aided his father materially in editing his "System of Surgery," a work of two volumes, containing 2,400 pages and illustrated by 1,400 engravings. This publication is said to be the most elaborate and exhaustive work on surgery ever written.

A FLOATING island is said to exist on Henry's Lake, Idaho. It is about three hundred feet in diameter, and is erratic in its travels, frequently, though, going with the wind, which catches in the trees and thereby carries it along. It is said that the curiosity might remain near shore for days, and then during the night sneak away, and in the morning be many miles distant.

THE OKLAHOMA FOLLY.

The telegrams tell us this morning that 20,000 people are on the Oklahoma border awaiting permission to move on the new territory and on the side come awful tales of murder and robbery.

How could it be otherwise, for already on the borders of the Indian territory, standing like racers listening for the pistol shot that tells them to go, is an army of eager, and in most cases desperate men, ready to bound forward for the goal upon which their eyes have so long been fixed with that longing which only comes from prohibition. There are today encamped along the southern line of Kansas and the northern line of Texas fully twenty thousand men, women and children, who are waiting to rush into the promised land and get a home. Reports from all sections of the country indicate that fully as many more are waiting until next week, when a grand rush will be made to the border. In other words, twenty thousand determined and desperate men will struggle for the possession of five thousand farms.

One million eight hundred thousand acres of land will, on the twenty-second day of this month, be thrown open to settlement in 160 acre farms. That means 11,250 farms for waiting villages. This fact is as far as the average homeseeker looks and his intention is to be one of the lucky ones who will profit by the opening of a magnificent domain which merely needs scratching to yield affluence to the possessor.

By taking eight of these farms out of each township which are reserved by the government it will reduce the total to 10,547 tracts of 160 acres each. Over ten thousand farms are to be opened for occupation.

No means have been left untried to induce the farmers of the land to believe that the whole tract of Oklahoma was one of the most fertile that graces the terrestrial globe. Interviews, pen pictures, maps, lectures and in fact everything known to the advertising art, has been constantly blazoning to the world that Oklahoma was the El Dorado of modern times.

Of the 10,547 tracts of 160 acres each at least one-half are untillable and fully one-third are not even suitable for grazing purposes. Along the streams which are tributary to the Canadian river the land is fair to look upon and is fully up to the standard of excellence described in the circulars sent out by the scheming land speculators and town site sharks. The land lies well and is heavily timbered, being fine farming country, but it is no better than thousands of acres in Missouri, Kansas and Texas, which can be had almost on the same terms.

Away from the streams the country changes its aspect entirely, and instead of fertile fields of rolling green is seen nothing but the rocky and sterile hills or the wide expanse of sand and alkali flats, whose baked surface means death, not only to vegetation, but to animals that long remain in the locality. It is not alone the land that is dead, but the poisonous vapors that constantly arise so infect the very air and water that it becomes a veritable terra del muerte, or land of death.

At least one-half of the land to be opened will not be selected by the settlers and the scramble will be for about five thousand farms. If there is such a thing as retributive justice those men who have by their false statements and glowing word pictures led the poor of many states to believe that a land flowing with milk and honey was to be opened to them will have an awful reckoning at the bar of judgment.

That Tired Feeling.

Afflicts nearly every one in the spring. The system having become accustomed to the bracing air of winter, is weakened by the warm days of the changing season, and readily yields to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine needed. It tones and builds up every part of the body, and also expels all impurities from the blood. Try it this season.

The South Bend base ball club is to reorganize.

A Sensible Man.

Would use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and Lungs. It is curing more cases of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung troubles, than any other medicine. The proprietor has authorized any druggist to give you a sample bottle free to convince you of the merit of this great remedy. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Sheridan will have a sure-enough canning factory.

A drug clerk recently wrote to the famous newspaper correspondent, Eleanor Kirk, that he did not think it wrong to substitute witch hazel for Pond's Extract. She replied as follows: "This is cool. According to such logic a dry goods dealer could justify himself in sending unbleached muslin when one had ordered cambric. It is a question involving the right of the purchaser to the article he wants. When I send for Pond's Extract and am furnished with water-flavored hamamelis, there will certainly be some words spoken."

Decatur will require property owners to set out shade trees.

How to Reduce Your Expenses.

You can do it easily, and you will not have to deprive yourself of a single comfort; on the contrary, you will enjoy life more than ever. How can you accomplish this result? Easily; cut down your doctor's bills. When you lose your appetite, and become billious and constipated, and therefore low-spirited, don't rush off to the family physician for a prescription, or, on the other hand, wait until you are sick abed before doing anything at all; but just go to the druggist's and for twenty-five cents get a supply of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Take them as directed, and our word for it, your unpleasant symptoms will disappear as if by magic, you will have no big doctor's bill to pay and everybody interested (except the doctor), will feel happy.

SIR KNIGHTS.

The Pythian Legions to Have a Grand Time at Warsaw.

Capt. F. N. Kollock this morning received this letter, which indicates the wonderful interest manifested in the coming encampment of the Knights of Pythias at Warsaw:

Mr. George H. Daniels, Vice Central Traffic Association, Chicago, Ill.

DEAR SIR:—I would respectfully call your attention to the meeting of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias of Indiana, to be held at Warsaw, Indiana, during the second week or third week in August, 1889, from Monday to Monday. This meeting is being strongly agitated, and there is every prospect for a very large turning out of Knights of Pythias, and their friends, together with the public generally, on this occasion.

The Uniform rank comprises fifty-two divisions, distributed throughout the state, from the river to the lakes, with a combined membership of nearly 1,900. These divisions will be present. In addition, the order in general (Knights of Pythias) have more than 20,000 members in the state, and as evidenced in the past, a very large per cent. of them can be relied upon to go. The meeting occurs at a season when the buisuness men want a rest, and will take advantage of a low rate, and with their families spend their week of vacation at this place.

There is every reason to believe that the society will equal, and perhaps surpass, previous conventions of similar character, as the spirit of the order is active in the highest degree—more so at the present time than other secret organizations.

Under the above named conditions, and with the attractions to be offered on this occasion, there is every reason to expect a large attendance. Of course, it is vitally necessary that the rates made by the different lines of railroad should be very reasonable, and I would request that you give this your careful attention, and trust you will favor the granting of a rate of, say, one fare for the round trip from points within fifty miles, and one cent per mile each way from points at greater distances. Tickets to be good going on Monday and Tuesday of the week selected, and good returning until the following Tuesday. Warsaw being a small town, you will readily see that there would be no possibility of tickets being handled by brokers.

The supreme chancellor K. of P. of the world and the major general of the U. R., with other distinguished members of the order, and their friends, will be present. Sufficient attractions will be given each day to induce crowds of people outside of the order to attend.

Thursday of the week selected will be made the great day. On this day members of the rank and the order have been invited, and are expected to be present, from Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Kentucky. We are asking these special rates for members of the rank and order, and their friends who will arrive there on Monday and Tuesday, and who will remain until the close of the encampment.

I have every reason to believe that the rates indicated herein will insure the attendance of from four to five thousand people, including the uniform rank and the order and their friends, all to be limited there by Tuesday, to remain during the encampment.

Will you kindly advise at as early a date as convenient, the most favorable rates we may expect?

THIRD POINT
You should read the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS because it's an independent newspaper. There are two sides to every political question, and THE DAILY NEWS presents them both with equal fairness. A party organ magnifies one side and dwarfs the other. No sensible man wants to be trifled with in this fashion. The time has gone by when American citizens expect to inherit their political opinions: They want to make their own—and to do this they want a paper to tell them the truth, regardless of their own personal preferences. If you are an honest man, independent and self-reliant in thought, read an honest and independent newspaper—read The Chicago DAILY NEWS.
Remember—Its circulation is 200,000 a day—over a million a week—and it costs by mail only a month, four months $1.00, one cent a day.

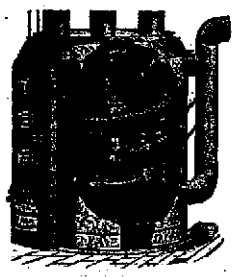
SHE'S A HUMMER!



The above cut represents the HOWARD FURNACE, which obtains by its construction, advantages over all others. It is the most Scientific, Practical and simple heater yet produced. It has the largest radiating surface, wherein the heat is circulated around and not mixed in the furnace instead of passing directly into the chimney. This furnace does not burn over one ton of coal a month in the coldest weather and in some instances less. This furnace will also heat by means of hot water, thereby reaching distant rooms where hot air cannot. It is low down and can be set in the lowest cellar and still allow hot air pipes to be taken from the top instead of the side of the casting as in all other furnaces. JOHN PIESSLER, 71 East Columbia street.

LONG LIFE.

There is nothing in the world more generally desired than long life, yet the majority of people put off caring for their health—not because they are really careless, but because we live our lives at such a pace we have not time to give the subject sufficient thought until we receive a reminder in the shape of a severe illness.

Then, too, we are constantly bewildered by the various schools of medicine, and the physicians who represent them, and often blunder in our choice of a doctor.

If people only know that the very best health-keeper, life-preserver and disease preventer that has yet been discovered, is simmered down into a concentrated and very palatable form in the shape of New Style Pleasant Taste Vinegar Bitters, they would not hesitate a moment to try it.

But they do not know. How can they know, when so many not only worthless, but positively injurious drugs are constantly flooding the market under various names and guises, that the New Style Vinegar Bitters is as bad as any of them?

They do not know, of course, unless they have the courage to try the New Style. It straightens out a tangled-up system in a very short while, and those who buy it once buy it always.

Why don't you try it, reader? It is sent out by a responsible house, and is exactly as represented. It costs but a dollar for a very large bottle. Try it once and you will never be so glad of anything in your life. Your druggist may not have it, but he will order it for you. Be sure it says New Style Pleasant Taste on carton and bottle before you take it. Try it, and you will feel happier than if you had found a gold mine, for it really is a mine—of health.

Free from alcohol and opium; composed of expensive herbs and roots, with a fine, delicate flavoring.

"BUT LITTLE NEWS."

Was the Reply of Everybody. But Our Reporter Made the Rounds and This is His Budget.

The east and west trains on the Wabash road were late this morning.

E. E. Murray, auditor of the Grand Rapids road, was in the city yesterday.

The Nickel Plate train men report a fierce storm at Stony Island last night.

Samuel Kuntz, of the Olds wheel works, is becoming an expert bicyclist.

Frank Walker, of the Pittsburg telegraph offices, has been on the sick list for a few days.

Superintendent of Motive Power F. D. Casanave, has been at Altoona, Pa., for the last few days.

C. L. Dresler, shipping clerk at the Pittsburg car shops, is off duty to-day observing Good Friday.

George Schmuck, machinist at the Russ works, is erecting a handsome new house on Madison street.

Seymour Boyd, of the Russ offices, has recovered from his recent illness and resumed his position.

The Lima car works has a strike on its hands, all the men in the erecting department having struck for more pay.

Joe Holt, clerk at the Olds wheel works, is lettering off his old bicycle and will purchase a handsome new one.

F. A. Nikolai is running one of the hammers at the Pittsburg blacksmith shops to-day in the absence of Mr. Haverly.

James Andrews, of the Nickel Plate, while engaged in driving piles at Hobart, Ind., was badly injured in the back.

The Wabash is placing some handsome new fruit and vegetable cars into service. They are made at the Toledo shops.

G. T. Williams, superintendent of telegraph of the Nickel Plate road, was in the city yesterday, registered at the Wayne.

The Standard Oil company has decided to erect car works at Lima, O., in which to do all the building and repairing of its tank line cars.

John LoVack, formerly of the Russ works, is now employed at White's Fruit House, in a position which he has held for the last two months.

Four locomotives came into the Pittsburg shops this week for repairs and four were sent out. There are now eleven in the works for repairs.

There are a number of Lutherans employed in the manufactories of the city and most of them are off duty to-day on account of "Good Friday" services.

A canvass just completed shows that there are employed on the systems of roads owned and controlled by the Pennsylvania railroad company 89,350 persons.

Louis Kernark and George Myers, of the Pittsburg shops, will go to Williamsport to-morrow to be the battery in a base ball game which takes place there Sunday.

The Vandalia line has just appointed a commercial agent at Cleveland to have charge of their freight interests for the territory east of Toledo to Buffalo and all north of the Fort Wayne road in Ohio.

The projectors of the American Midland, of the old New York, Mahoning and Western road say that they will have the road completed and passenger trains running between Tiffin and Fort Wayne on July 4.

The employes of the Pittsburg machine shops have contributed a very beautiful floral offering to be laid upon the coffin of Mary, the little daughter of Mr. Julius Bennigan, who is an employe of the works.

One of the cab drivers of the city charged an old lady $1.50 this morning to haul her from the Wayne hotel to the Wabash depot. The lady thought the charge exhorbitant, but rather than make a fuss paid it. She was a stranger and was on her way to Boston, Mass.

Some of the departments of the railroad and manufacturing shops were almost deserted this morning on account of so many of the employes being absent from duty attending the religious services incident to Good Friday. Our reporter in his rounds missed many familiar faces, and if his budget of personal and local gossip is not what it ought to be to-day, this may be assigned as one of the reasons.

Centlivre's Bock Beer will be out to-morrow; mill for it. 19-2t

Rome City for 1889—Excursion Season.

An elegant new station house, capable of protecting fifteen hundred people from sun or rain. The island has been improved, sleeping rooms overhauled, buildings painted, new restaurant and dance hall erected. All the old buildings have been painted, and with two dance halls, enlarged restaurant, with twenty-five new clinker boats added to the already large fleet there, makes Rome City the most attractive, cleanest and best resort for picnics or excursion parties in Indiana.

The lake is large; nicely wooded banks surround it, clean gravel or sand shores; no black muck or wild grass to prevent the landing of row boats at almost any point desired; while those desiring to view the beautiful waters, without partaking of the pleasure of boat-riding, can do so seated upon the lake's beautiful banks, nicely shaded, thus avoiding the hot rays of the burning sun.

TROUBLE FEARED.

Italians Imported to Take the Place of White Labor.

There are rumors of serious trouble likely to occur at Liberty Center, Wells county.

It seems that the "Clover Leaf" Railroad company has gravel pits there and has employed heretofore the labor of parties living in that locality. To these men, it is said, they had been paying $1.50 per day. Recently, however, the company secured and put to work in the pits a gang of 100 Italians, and it is said, paid them ninety cents per day. This, of course, has displaced the native laborers, and the feeling has arisen to a high pitch. From the reports it would seem that threats of a very serious character had been made, but it is to be hoped that they may not be put into execution.

It is a practical example of how the tariff protects the laboring man.

Two great enemies—Hood's Sarsaparilla and impure blood. The latter is utterly defeated by the peculiar medicine.

ANIMAL LANGUAGE.

It is a favorite notion among barbarian tribes that the lower orders of animals understand the language of mankind, and are pleased to be addressed in flattering words. All Indians believe that the bear, in particular, understands anything said to him.

Yacuts, of Siberia, call the bear Lord, Illustrious, Old Man, Good Father, and beg of him humbly the permission to continue their journey.

The tiger is named Lord or Grandfather by the Cambodia tribes, and the Annamites call him Sir Tiger and address prayers to him.

Philippine islanders beg the crocodiles not to do them any harm, while inhabitants of one of the Fiji Islands think the shark will not attack them if they call out, "I am from Columbia," their village.

Guaranis, of Brazil, when the horses of Europeans were restless, begged them to be still and promised to feed them well.

Some natives of the Marianne Islands carried presents to a horse to obtain from him permission to pull a few hairs out of his tail.

A Great Surprise.

Is in store for all those who use Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, the great guaranteed remedy. Would you believe that it is sold on its merits and that any druggist is authorized by the proprietor of this wonderful remedy to give you a sample bottle free? It never fails to cure acute pain or chronic coughs. All druggists sell Kemp's Balsam. Large bottles 50c and $1.

TWO METHODS OF LIFE.

Human life may be painted according to two methods. There is the stage method. According to that each character is duly marshalled at first, and ticketed; and we know with an immutable certainty, that at the right crisis each one will reappear and act his part and, when the curtain falls, all will stand before it bowing. There is a sense of satisfaction in this end of completeness.

But there is another method—the method of the life we lead. Here nothing can be prophesied. There is a strange coming and going of feet. Men appear, act, and react upon each other, and pass away. When the crisis comes the man who would fit it does not return. When the curtain falls no one is ready. When the footlights are brightest they are blown out, and what the name of the play is no one knows. If there sits a spectator who knows, he sits so high that the players in the gaslight cannot hear his breathing. Life may be painted according to either method; but the methods are different. The canons of criticism that bear upon the one cut cruelly upon the other.—The Story of an African Farm.

Swift's Specific has cured me of a malignant breaking out on my leg, which caused intolerable pain. It was called Eczema by the doctors, four of whom treated me with no relief. I candidly confess that I owe my present good health to S. S. S., which in my estimation is invaluable as a blood remedy.

Our baby when two months old was attacked with Scrofula, which for a long time destroyed her entire body, and caused us to despair of her life. The doctors failed to relieve her, and we gave Swift's Specific, which soon cured her entirely, and she is now hale and hearty.

In the supreme court of the state yesterday at Indianapolis, Judge Elliott, in affirming the decision previously rendered by Judge O'Rourke in the case of Catherine Stegemeier, administratrix, vs. the Pennsylvania road, taken from Allen county, said in substance: Where an ordinance of a city requires a railroad company to maintain gates and a flagman at a street crossing, a person seeing the gates open and no flagman has a right to rely upon safely crossing, and, if he is struck by one of two approaching trains, the company cannot escape liability on the ground that the decedent was negligent in not looking or listening for himself.

"People who ride on the street cars and find fault with us drivers would have a little more patience and charity for us if they knew what we have to do and contend with," remarked a knight of the car hook. "Driving a street car comes mighty near being a dog's life, and we are mighty busy. We have to make change and watch that all fares are paid, keep the boys off the rear of the car, watch out for passengers and for other cars at crossings, see that the horses don't run away, watch our cash box, drive so as to make the proper time, remember just where every old lady wants to get off, keep from running over some one's pet dog or child, answer 500 questions, most of which are foolish and look out for counterfeit money."

ANOTHER LEARNED SHOEMAKER.

Mr. John Mackintosh, author of "The History of Civilization in Scotland," who will write the volume "Scotland" in the "Story of the Nations Series," is in many respects a remarkable man. He was sent to work on a farm in his native county of Banff at 10 years of age, and was subsequently apprenticed to shoemaking, at which trade he worked in various parts of Scotland for fourteen years. In 1860 he opened a small stationary shop in Aberdeen, "and there on the shop counter," he once wrote, "amid all the noise and bustle of a stirring thoroughfare, the three volumes of my history were written and the proof sheets corrected and revised, all being done while customers were coming in and out and constantly interrupting me."

Mr. Mackintosh's shop is passed daily by the professors on their way to the university, and at one time several of them were in the habit of calling occasionally and having a chat with the literary shoemaker. He was accorded the privilege, too, of using the university library. His history consists of four portly volumes, the last and best dealing with the moral and material advancement of the country. Mr. Mackintosh has been in the habit all his life of rising before 4 a. m. He says he finds the early morning hours the best for literary work.—Pall Mall Gazette.

WANTED—A girl in a small family for general housework. 82 West Jefferson street.

A BIG VICTORY.

A. C. Trentman Wins the Case Brought by the Miller Estate.

Something like a year ago Mr. A. H. Bittinger, administrator for the Miller estate, brought suit to recover from A. C. Trentman $10,000, a loss which it was alleged the estate suffered by reason of Mr. Trentman taking control of Mr. Miller's grocery store, on Columbia street, on claims held against the house by him.

The case has been on trial for a week past, before Judge Chapin and a jury, and this morning a verdict was returned in favor of Mr. Trentman, freeing him from all liability.

The World Ought to Know It.

The world ought to know what S. S. S. has done for me in the cure of a malignant cancer, which was so bad as to be considered incurable by the physicians in Chicago, where I went to be treated. The hospital surgeons gave me up, saying they could do nothing for me. One of my neighbors sent me a copy of an advertisement cut from a paper in regard to Swift's Specific, and I began taking it. I got relief from the first few doses; the poison was gradually forced out of my system, and I was soon cured sound and well. It is now ten months since I quit taking S. S. S. and I have had no sign of return of the dreadful disease.
